

Pickpocket

She got a one and all new alibi
Hit you right between the eyes
Climb into a Cadillac
'cause you aren't ever going back

She's quicker than the eye can see
Sticky fingers on your dream
You won't miss her 'til she's gone
Whoosh through your pockets
Steal your heart
She can pick your pocket
In the dark, yeah, yeah

So shove those feelings deep inside
She knows what you're going to hide
Say you won't get hurt again
But tonight will never end

She knows what you've been dreaming of
She knows you'll never give it up
Right on 42nd Street
She'll pick your pocket
Steal your heart
She'll pick your pocket
In the dark, yeah

Pick your pocket
Steal your heart
She'll pick your pocket
In the dark

One and all new alibi
Hit you right between the eyes
She knows what you've been dreaming of
She knows you'll never give it up

Right on 42nd Street
She'll pick your pocket
She'll steal your heart
She'll pick your pocket
In the dark, yeah

She'll pick your pocket
And steal your heart
She'll pick your pocket
In the dark

She'll pick your pocket
And steal your heart
She'll pick your pocket
In the dark
She'll pick your pocket
