Lullaby

Sleep baby sleep
The days on the run
The wind in the trees
Is talking in tongues

If your heart is torn
I dont wonder why
If the night is long
Heres my lullaby

Well the mouse ate the crumb
Then the cat ate the crust
Now theyve fallen in love
Theyre talking in tongues

If your heart is torn.

Sleep baby sleep
Theres a morning to come
The wind in the trees
theyre talking in tongues

If your heart is torn
I dont wonder why
If the night is long
Heres my lullaby
