

Eternity

*And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,
And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever... that there should be time no longer. Rev. 10:5-6*

1. I stood at the time-beat-en por - tals, Where man - y a pil - grim had passed
2. I lin - gered, and si - lent - ly lis - tened To the dull, heav - y tread of the years,
3. I saw then the Judge in His splen - dor, As He stepped to His great judg - ment seat,
4. Let us work while 'tis day, broth - er, sis - ter, For soon shall the Mas - ter re - turn,

Out in - to the in - fi - nite fu - ture, To be with the pure and the blest;
And thought of the fate of the guilt - y, When Christ in His glo - ry ap - pears;
And thought of the crash - ing of ag - es, When Time and E - ter - ni - ty meet;
To gar - ner the wheat that we har - vest, The chaff in His fu - ry to burn;

And, mus - ing in si - lent de - vo - tion, E - ter - ni - ty seemed to draw near;
A shud - der came o - ver my spir - it, As I thought what a mo - ment might cost,
For Time, who has laid man - y mil - lions To slum - ber in death's si - lent shade,
Then in haste let us rush to the res - cue, But few can we save at the most:

And strains from the choir of the faith - ful I seemed in my fan - cy to hear.
For e - ter - ni - ty's still - ness was bro - ken By the groans and the sighs of the lost.
Shall reel at E - ter - ni - ty's pres - ence, And sleep in the tomb he has made.
Soon mil - lions shall be at the judg - ment, For - ev - er, e - ter - nal - ly lost.
