

With Every Wish-crd

Ol' catfish in the lake we called him Big Jim

When I was a kid my only wish ws to get my line in him^B
 Skipped church one Sunday rowed out and throw'd in my line^E
 Jim took that hook pole and me right over the side^B
 Went driftin' down past old tires and rusty cans of beer^E
 The angel of the lake whispered in my ear^B
 "Before you choose your wish son^E
 You better think first^E
 With every wish there comes a curse."^E

I fell in love with beautiful Doreen

She was the prettiest thing this old town'd ever seen^B
 I courted her and I made her mine^E
 But I grew jealous whenever another man'd^A
 Come walkin' down the line^E
 And my jealousy made me treat her hard and cruel^E
 She sighed, "Bobby oh Bobby you're such a fool.^B
 Don't you know before you choose your wish^E
 You'd better think first^E
 'Cause with every wish there comes a curse."^E | E |

These days I sit around and laugh at the many rivers I've crossed

But on the far banks there's always another forest where a man can get lost^B
 Well there in the high trees love's bluebird glides^E
 Guiding us 'cross to another river on the other side^B
 And there someone is waitin' with a look in her eyes^E
 And though my heart's grown weary^E
 And more than a little bit shy^B
 Tonight I'll drink from her waters to quench my thirst^E
 And leave the angels to worry
 With every wish^E
