

Me And Little Andy

Dolly Parton

D

Late one cold and stormy night I heard a dog a' barkin,

D

Then I thought I heard somebody at my door a' knockin,

G

I wondered who could be outside in such an awful storm,

A

D

Then I saw a little girl with a puppy in her arms,

D

Before I could say a word she said, 'My name is Sandy,

And this here is my puppy dog, it's name is little Andy,

Standing in the bitter cold in just a ragged dress,

D

Then I asked her to come in and this is what she said,

D

Ain't ya got no gingerbread,

D

Ain't ya got no candy,

D

Ain't ya got an extra bed for me and little Andy,

G

A

Patty cake and bakersman,

D

G

My mommy ran away again,

G

A

And we was all alone and didn't know what else to do,

A7

D

I wonder if you'll let us stay with you,

D

Giddy up trotty horse, going to the mill,

D

Can we stay all night,

D

If you don't love us no one will,

D

I promise we won't cry,

G

A

London bridge is fallin' down,

D G

My daddy's drunk again in town,

G

A

And we was all alone and didn't what we could do,

A7

D

I wonder if you'll let us stay with you,

D

She was just a little girl, not more than six or seven,

D

But that night as they slept the angels took them both to heaven,

God knew little Andy would be lonesome with her gone,

D

Now Sandy and her puppy dog won't ever be alone,

D

Ain't ya got no gingerbread,

D

Ain't ya got no candy,

D

Ain't ya got an extra bed for me and little, Andy
