Crow Jane Blues (2)

Crow Jane Blues (2)

Crow Jane Crow Jane
What make your big head so high
You realize baby
You gotta lay down and die
You see me comin, go put your man outdoors
I ain't no stranger, Lorrette been here before

I love you Crow Jane and I ain't gonna tell no lie
The day you quit me that'll be the day you die
We ain't gonna sleep outdoors
And I ain't gonna sleep alone
Ring the bells of mercy let
The sinner gal get back home

Crow Jane Crow Jane
What make your big head so high
You realize baby you gotta lay down and die
Crow Jane Crow Jane
You gotta lay down and die.

These are the lyrics of the Dave Soldier & the Kropotkins version. From their self-titled album on Koch records. ED
