Home Where Grief Cannot Come
Old Gospel Song

1. So many dear friends ---- I've known here below----
Are now living yonder-----free from all woe--------.
They've budded down here------ to bloom over there-----
There in that bright home--------so wondrously fair.

CHORUS:
There is a bright home-----where grief cannot come--------.
Sad partings will never be known.
No unkinds words spoken--------, no hearts will be broken-------
In that bright home------where grief cannot come.

2. The River of Life----- flows from the throne------
They say in that city------, we'll know as we're known-------.
Beholding our Lord----- and hear His well-done----.
In that bright home------- where grief cannot come.
