

Once there was a country schoolhouse where the kids all used to go,
And one little boy in school, they called him Ragtime Joe.
Old Joe had a problem with spelling, that the teacher couldnâ t understand,
They gave him out the word chicken to spell, and this is the way it began.

C â am the first letter
H â am the second
I - am the third
And C K â is the *word.
E â am the way you eat her
And N is the last one
C-H-I-C-K-E-N
The way to spell chicken.

Chicken oh chicken wonâ t you come down outta that tree.
Chicken yes chicken you donâ t roost too high for me.
Iâ m going up in a big balloon,
Iâ m gonna pull that chicken out behind the moon.
Chicken oh chicken you donâ t roost too high for me.

(Solo)

Oh Chicken yes chicken you donâ t roost too high for me.
Chicken oh chicken wonâ t you come down outta that tree.
Iâ m going up in a big balloon,
Iâ m gonna pull that chicken out behind the moon.
Chicken oh chicken you donâ t roost too high for me.

(Solo)

file from: www.traditionalmusic.co.uk