

the Smith's a Gallant Fireman (Carrick's Rant)

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

First system of music notation for "the Smith's a Gallant Fireman (Carrick's Rant)". The system includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a staff with a D note above the first measure and an Em note above the third measure. The bass line is written on a staff with a C note above the first measure. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

Second system of music notation. The system includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a staff with a D note above the first measure, a G note above the third measure, a D note above the fourth measure, an Em note above the fifth measure, and an A7 note above the sixth measure. The bass line is written on a staff with a C note above the first measure. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

Third system of music notation. The system includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a staff with a D note above the first measure, an Em note above the third measure, a G note above the fourth measure, and an A7 note above the fifth measure. The bass line is written on a staff with a C note above the first measure. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

Fourth system of music notation. The system includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a staff with a D note above the first measure, a G note above the third measure, a D note above the fourth measure, an Em note above the fifth measure, and an A7 note above the sixth measure. The bass line is written on a staff with a C note above the first measure. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.