From bonnie Loch Lomond,

Verses:

C

The great Argyle, he goes before,

F

He makes the guns and cannons roar,

G7 C

With sound of trumpet, pipe and drum,

C7 F F#dim C

And banners waving in the sun.

With bonnet blue, auld Scotties pride,
And broad claymore hung at their side,
With plumes all nodding in the wind,
They have not left a man behind.

Hark! hark! the Pibroch's sound I hear,
Now bonnie lassie, dinna fear;
'Tis honor calls, I must away,
Argyle's the word and ours the day.
