When the farmer comes to town

With his wagon broken down,

Em

D

G

Oh the farmer is the man who feeds them all.

If you'll only look and see,

Em

I think you will agree

C

D7

G

That the farmer is the man who feeds them all.

First Chorus:

G

The farmer is the man,

Bm

The farmer is the man,

Lives on credit till the fall;

G

Then they take him by the hand

Em

G

And they lead him from the land,

D

G

And the middleman's the man who gets it all.

Oh the lawyer hangs around
While the butcher cuts a pound,
But the farmer is the man who feeds them all;
And the preacher and the cook
Go a-strolling by the brook,
But the farmer is the man who feeds them all.

Second Chorus:

The farmer is the man, (twice)
Lives on credit till the fall;
With the interest rate so high,
It's a wonder he don't die,
For the mortgage man's the man who gets it all.

When the banker says he broke
And the merchant's up in smoke,
They forget that it's the farmer feeds them all.
It would put them to the test
If the farmer took a rest,
Then they'd know that it's the farmer feeds them all.

Third Chorus:

The farmer is the man, (twice)
Lives on credit till the fall;
His pants are -wearing thin,
His condition, it's a sin,
He's forgot that he's the man who feeds them all.
