 I'll t ake you to your home again.

I know you love me, Kathleen dear,
 Your heart was ever fond and true,
 I always feel when you are near,
 That life holds nothing, dear, but you.
 The smiles that once you gave to me,
 I scarcely ever see them now;
 Though many times I see
 A dark'ning shadow on your brow.

To that dear home beyond the sea,
 My Kathleen shall again return,
 And when thy old friends welcome thee,
 Thy loving heart will cease to yearn.
 Where laughs the little silver stream,
 Beside your mother's humble cot,
 And brightest rays of sunshine gleam,
 There all your grief will be forgot.
