

Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight?

Robert Lowry

G C D7 G
Where is my wand'ring boy tonight?
Em C C
The boy of my tenderest care,
G C D7 G
The boy that was once my joy and light,
D7 G
The child of my love and prayer ?

Chorus:

C Cm6 G
O where is my boy tonight ?
D7 A7 D7
O where is my boy tonight ?
G D7 G7 C
My heart o'erflows, for I love him, he knows,
Cm G D7 G
O where is my boy tonight?

Once he was pure as morning dew,
As he knelt at his mother's knee;
No face was so bright, no heart more true,
And none was so sweet as he.

O could I see you now my boy
As fair as in olden time,
When prattle and smile made home a joy,
And life was a merry chime!

Go for my wand'ring boy tonight;
Go search for him where you will;
But bring him to me with all his blight,
And tell him I love him still.
